NOTE: This policy has been suspended until further notice by Education Council. The following resolution was passed at the December 13, 2002 meeting of Education Council: “Move to suspend the New Program Policy #3-07 until September 2003. During the time the policy is under review, all new programs and programs requiring major revisions will be approved by Education Council prior to posting on the web. If the posting results in major changes to the program or the program revision, then these changes must also be reviewed and approved by Education Council prior to implementation”.
