

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING ON ACADEMIC COOPERATION

Between

NORTH ISLAND COLLEGE (NIC)
Courtenay, British Columbia, Canada

and

UNIVERSITY OF BURGUNDY (uB)
Dijon, FRANCE

Located in Courtenay, British Columbia, North Island College is a special purpose public college that is committed to high quality and excellence in its programs and services. It offers more than 900 courses and 70 credit programs supported by a dedicated faculty, staff and administration – all working together to support learner success.

Located in Burgundy, between Paris and Lyon, uB has its main campus in Dijon, and several others spread across Burgundy.

It offers 400 different degrees across all levels (Bachelor, Master and PhD) and enrolls 3,000 members of staff and 29,000 students among whom more than 2,300 are international students. Most programmes are taught in French, but a growing number are taught in English. The University of Burgundy is part of the University of Burgundy France-Comté Community.

This MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU) is designed to foster a mutually beneficial relationship through cooperation in teaching and research between North Island College (NIC) and University of Burgundy (uB) hereinafter jointly referred as "The Parties". No financial obligations are assumed under this agreement.

The Parties have reached agreement on the following areas of cooperation, subject to mutual consent and the availability of sufficient funding:

- Exchange of faculty
- Joint research development and program development
- Transfer of credits/credential for degree/diploma completion
- Participation in seminars and academic meetings
- Exchange of academic materials and other information
- Special short-term academic programs
- Virtual classroom collaborations
- Student exchange for research and study

The terms of such mutual assistance and funding for any specific program and activity shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in writing by both parties prior to the initiation of a particular program.

Each institution will designate an individual to coordinate this program and all endeavors that may derive from it. For this purpose, University of Burgundy designates Gregory Wegmann, Vice President, International Relations and North Island College designates Mark Herringer, Executive Director, Office of Global Engagement.
